Welcome to the 2025 Göteborg Film Festival

We are delighted to invite you to the 48th edition of the Göteborg Film Festival – the leading film festival in the Nordics. This year, we present a vast programme featuring 270 films from more than 80 countries, showcasing the best in international cinema while highlighting the finest Nordic talents.

The festival's focus for 2025 is Disobedience – a force that shapes history, sparks change, and challenges the status quo. Through a curated selection of films, panels, and initiatives, we will explore how resistance, rebellion, and civil disobedience resonate in today's world and the role cinema plays in amplifying these voices.

This year, we are honoured to celebrate Julie Delpy with the Honorary Dragon Award and Thomas Vinterberg with the Nordic Honorary Dragon Award. We are also proud to welcome Mohammad Rasoulof, the award-winning Iranian director, as a key guest of the Focus: Disobedience.

The 2025 industry programme will feature over 100 films and series at various stages of production, complemented by nearly 250 speakers on our stages. The 26th Nordic Film Market will, as always, highlight some of the most promising upcoming Nordic projects while introducing the Nordic Gateway – a new section designed to connect international feature films with Nordic partners. The 19th edition of TV Drama Vision, our annual drama series marketplace, will explore the future of storytelling, focusing on creativity, audience engagement, and innovative co-financing models that address the industry's evolving landscape. We're also thrilled to welcome the acclaimed French showrunner Fanny Herrero to the TV Drama Vision stage.

The Industry Guide is your essential companion to the festival, offering detailed insights into initiatives, screenings, seminars, and events. It provides everything you need to navigate the festival – from film and drama series in competition to parties and networking opportunities. At the heart of the festival, Hotel Draken and cinema Draken continue to be our vibrant hubs for meetings, screenings, and celebrations – places where ideas spark, deals are made, and unforgettable moments unfold.

We look forward to sharing this extraordinary festival with you – one that celebrates bold stories, ground-breaking talent, and the power of disobedience.

Attend Göteborg Film Festival

Welcome to the 48th Göteborg Film Festival! Here is a practical guide to help you navigate the festival.

Industry Center

Clarion Hotel Draken is the centre of Göteborg Film Festival. Built atop the iconic main cinema of the film festival, Hotel Draken features 474 cinema-themed rooms, great meeting venues, and exceptional restaurants including a breathtaking rooftop bar that serves up sweeping panoramic views of Göteborg.

Hotel Draken hosts various festival events in its Living Room and Library, including the festival opening party, Studio Draken, and DJs. Read more about the events in the calendar on page 20-31.

Hotel Draken is also the Industry Center that serves as the central location to meet and connect with the industry attending TV Drama Vision, Nordic Film Market and the festival.

You can pick-up your accreditation, including TV Drama Vision and Nordic Film Market and meet out helpful staff at the Industry Desk located in the lobby of the hotel.

More information about attendance.

Industry Desk

The Industry Desk in the lobby of Hotel Draken is the place to pick up your accreditation. All accreditations are available for pick-up here, including TV Drama Vision and Nordic Film Market.

Clarion-Connect

Networking

Hotel Draken Industry Networking

From January 24 to February 2, Hotel Draken provides space for meetings, networking, or simply unwinding in the lobby. Guests can enjoy dining at Heurlins Restaurant or experience the breathtaking views from Brasserie Draken, the rooftop restaurant. The Living Room Bar also offers a selection of drinks, coffee, and snacks. Check the opening hours on our website.

Nearby Hotel Draken

Hotel Draken is conveniently situated near Järntorget and Långgatorna (The Long Streets), an area fondly known as Göteborg's pub mecca. Stroll along the street and choose from bars and pubs that fit your mood.

Nearby Biopalatset

Biopalatset is the primary venue for the Nordic Film Market and several festival screenings. It's located in the very centre of the city, where you'll find numerous cafes and restaurants in the surrounding area.

See our favourite places at the festival map on page 10.

Special Drink-Deal in Selected Bars

All accredited guests enjoy special drink-deal at Skanshof and Kafé Magasinet. Show your accreditation at the bar to receive discounted prices on beer and wine. Plus, enjoy a free entry to Lounge(s) (Thursday–Saturday) and Yaki-Da (Wednesday, Friday–Saturday).

TV Drama Vision

TV Drama Vision is the leading Nordic conference and marketplace dedicated to drama series. The boutique event delivers unparalleled networking opportunities with key industry leaders, presenting a dynamic stage program that showcases 50 European series at various stages of production, and insights from 100 speakers on global industry trends, storytelling, audience strategies, and financing opportunities.

Over two dynamic days commissioners, streamers, producers, financiers, and creators gather for a high-impact environment for connections and insights into the future of the industry.

The 2025 TV Drama Vision programme will spotlight creativity, collaboration, and innovative audience design, alongside new co-financing models to navigate the industry's evolving landscape. Acclaimed French writer and showrunner Fanny Herrero will join as Guest of Honour, adding to an exciting lineup of insights and inspiration. And as always, we welcome leading commissioners and streamers from the Nordics and Europe to the stage.

This year TV Drama Vision also expands with three exclusive pre-sessions offering in-depth insights on January 27, setting the stage for the main event starting on January 28.

TV Drama Vision moderators are Andrea Reuter, Marike Muselaers, Johanna Koljonen and Paolo Ciccarelli.

TV Drama Vision is supported by the Region Västra Götaland, Creative Europe MEDIA, Nordisk Film & TV Fond, and Kulturakademin

Full programme and participant lists.

Nostradamus Collective

- Collaboration as Innovation

Launching in 2025, the Nostradamus Collective is an initiative under the Nostradamus project, fostering collaboration and transparency among current and future industry leaders.

The first invitation-only session will take place at the Göteborg Film Festival on January 29, in Drama Hall. Moderated by Johanna Koljonen, this closed-door "fishbowl" discussion will bring together 30 selected professionals to explore the state of the audiovisual sector. Insights from this session will be published in February.

Throughout the year, the Nostradamus Collective will partner with international markets and organizations to develop additional sessions aligned with the initiative's goals.

The Collective creates space for sharing experiences, identifying challenges, and generating possible solutions – enhancing the industry's collective ability to navigate change and thrive.

The Nostradamus Project is presented by Göteborg Film Festival in partnership with Boost HBG, Kulturakademin and Lindholmen Science Park, with additional funding from Creative Europe MEDIA, Region Västra Götaland and Nordisk Film & TV Fond.

Navigating the Future

Nostradamus

Since 2013, the Göteborg Film Festival's Nostradamus initiative has provided forward-looking insights into the future of the audiovisual industry. Authored by media analyst Johanna Koljonen, the annual reports track emerging trends in business models, distribution, and audience behaviour, offering valuable guidance for industry professionals and policymakers across Europe.

The initiative hosts seminars at key festivals, including Cannes' Marché du Film and Berlin's European Film Market.

The 12th Nostradamus Report will be unveiled in May 2025 at Marché du Film.

Göteborg Film Fund

Göteborg Film Fund aims to strengthen the film industry in countries or regions with an interesting cinema on a high artistic level, but with different economic or political challenges and preconditions. In 2021, the fund supported filmmakers in Brazil, Sudan, Ukraine, and Kurdish regions spanning Iraq, Iran, Turkey, and Syria. Since 2022, it has focused on Ukraine's film industry with funding schemes like development support and residencies.

This year, the Göteborg Film Festival features one film which was edited during the 2024 residency.

A Bit of a Stranger (section Voyage) Svitlana Lishchynska, Ukraine 2024

Ukrainian documentary director focuses on four generations of women's complicated family relationships, set against the backdrop of the full-scale Russian invasion.

January 25-26

Film Forum Sweden

Film Forum Sweden (Filmforum Sverige) is the Göteborg Film Festival's initiative for the Swedish film industry, held on 25 and 26 January at Folkteatern, Olof Palmes plats. Two days filled with talks, panels and networking focusing on inspiration, new visions, forward-looking dialogue and skill development.

Film Forum Sweden is available with all accreditations. The programme is in Swedish.

Film i Väst is Scandinavia's leading film fund and has co-produced more than 1.500 films and drama series since 1992. Thanks to great co-operation with Swedish and international producers over 100 films have been screened in Cannes, Berlin, Venice, Toronto and Sundance. Our co-productions have received twelve Oscar nominations since 2011 and eleven Palme d'Or nominations including Ruben Östlund's winners The Square and Triangle of Sadness.

Nordic Film Lab

Nordic Film Lab is an exclusive networking forum for upcoming Nordic filmmakers, focusing on the artistic processes in filmmaking.

One of the most vital functions of a film festival is to act as a meeting place. The ambience that arises when people in large numbers gather around a common interest has an attraction in itself. Since 2008, Göteborg Film Festival has worked on enhancing this particular function by creating a special forum for talented filmmakers. Nordic Film Lab is a one-year programme that has two functions: partly to be a place where you meet potential future work partners, and partly to be a place for in-depth discussions about the art of filmmaking and creativity.

Thanks to the collaborations with our partners, Film i Väst, Norwegian Film Institute, Danish Film Institute, Swedish Film Institute and Finnish Film Foundation we are proud and happy to welcome the participants of Nordic Film Lab 2025!

A-Function FrameSage and Mingel, Sunday Jan 26 13:00-16:00

Directors Talk: Joshua Oppenheimer

Venue: Stora Teatern, Kungsparken 1

Double Oscar-nominated documentary film-maker Joshua Oppenheimer continues to captivate audiences with his bold portrayals of the aftermath of Indonesia's 1960s violence. In The Act of Killing, he invited the so-called death squads to re-enact their crimes, while the contemplative The Look of Silence followed a travelling optician uncovering survivors' haunting stories. Now, Oppenheimer turns to fiction with The End, a hypnotic visual musical starring Tilda Swinton, George MacKay, and Michael Shannon.

The conversation follows the film The End.

Moderator: Tobias Åkesson. Entrance with a ticket.

Sunday Jan 26 16:00 – 18:00

Human in Loop:

The Generative Al Masterclass

Venue: Film i Väst Showroom, Kungsgatan 7

Join for a masterclass with Dr Angus Finney, a Fellow at Cambridge University, executive producer, author and international industry expert. From natural language prompting to live action models, Generative AI is having a significant impact on the film value chain all the way from ideas to intended audiences. Understanding the array of tools, prompt skills and co-piloting is essential for the current and next generation of filmmakers, Dr Angus Finney takes us through the value chain with a sharp critical analysis of the best (and worst) tools on offer.

Sign up bit.ly/filmivast. Event is free of charge and operates on a first-come, first-served basis.

Organiser: Film i Väst.

Tuesday Jan 28 14:15-16:40

Actors Talk: Trine Dyrholm

Venue: Bio Roy, Kungsportsavenyn 45

Trine Dyrholm won her first Bodil Award for her debut in Spring Tide in 1991. Since then, she has become a celebrated Danish actor, collaborating with renowned directors such as Susanne Bier, Anette K. Olesen, and Pernille Fischer Christensen. She has worked extensively with the Nordic Honorary Award recipient Thomas Vinterberg, including the Dogme classic The Celebration. Dyrholm's exceptional performance in May el-Toukhy's Queen of Hearts earned her the Dragon Award for Best Nordic Acting at the Göteborg Film Festival. Now, she returns as the chillingly enigmatic angelmaker in Magnus von Horn's The Girl with the Needle.

The conversation follows the film The Girl with the Needle, Moderator: Camilla Larsson. Entrance with a ticket.

Jan 27-30

DocBar

Venue: Hagabion, Linnégatan 21

Are you looking for a slice of reality, cool bar vibes, and discussions with filmmakers? DocBar brings you the festival's most talked-about documentaries and special guests to a cosy bar at Hagabion.

Moderator: Camilla Larsson. Book a ticket for the films, talks are for free. Films have English subtitles, talks are in Swedish.

Tuesday Jan 28 16:00 – 18:45

Directors Talk: Thomas Vinterbera

Venue: Stora Teatern, Kungsparken 1

Thomas Vinterberg is one of the most influential Nordic filmmakers of our time and the recipient of the 2025 Göteborg Film Festival's Nordic Honorary Dragon Award. He established himself as a cinematic force with The Celebration, which premiered at Cannes in 1998. Created under the Dogme 95 Manifesto – a movement Vinterberg co-founded with Lars von Trier and other Danish directors - the film set new standards for authenticity and purity in storytelling. Since then, Vinterberg has directed critically acclaimed works, including The Hunt starring Mads Mikkelsen, the Oscar-winning Another Round, and the drama series Families Like Ours. Currently, he is working on a highly anticipated adaptation of The Brothers Lionheart.

The conversation follows the film The Celebration. Moderator: Pia Lundberg. Entrance with a ticket.

Directors/Actors Talk: Julie Delpy

Venue: Cinema Draken, Olof Palmes Plats 2

Julie Delpy, the recipient of the 2025 Honorary Dragon Award, is celebrated as one of the most versatile and groundbreaking voices in international cinema. A multifaceted talent, she has established herself as a director, actor, screenwriter, editor, and composer, becoming an icon through classics such as Three Colours: White and the Before trilogy. Delpy has collaborated with renowned filmmakers including Jean-Luc Godard, Agnieszka Holland, and Jim Jarmusch. Her directorial successes, such as 2 Days in Paris, 2 Days in New York, and the series On the Verge, have left a lasting mark on contemporary cinema. Now, she will present her latest film, Meet the Barbarians, where she masterfully balances humour and warmth with profound seriousness.

The conversation follows the film Meet the Barbarians. Moderator: Pia Lundberg. Entrance with a ticket.

Thursday Jan 30 16:00 – 19:30

Directors Talk: Mohammad Rasoulof

Venue: Bio Roy, Kungsportsavenyn 45

After being sentenced to eight years in prison and corporal punishment, Mohammad Rasoulof was forced to flee Iran just before his film The Seed of the Sacred Fig competed for the Palme d'Or at Cannes in May 2024. Since his debut in 2002, Rasoulof has been internationally acclaimed and nationally punished, faced prison, travel bans, and restrictions for his politically charged films. His breakthrough came with Manuscripts Don't Burn, and he won the Golden Bear at Berlin in 2020 for There Is No Evil. Rasoulof presents his latest film The Seed of the Sacred Fig at Göteborg Film Festival, that delivers his most powerful critique of the Iranian regime to date.

The conversation follows the film The Seed of the Sacred Fig. Moderator: Pia Lundberg. Entrance with a ticket.

ARTEF: Way Forward

Venue: Biopalatset 9, Kungstorget 2

The Anti-Racism Taskforce for European Film (ARTEF) invites you to a presentation unveiling our 12-month strategy for prompting structural change within the European film ecosystem. Drawing from insights gathered at our Berlinale/EFM 2024 Roundtable with 30 industry professionals and building on our work since launching in 2020, we will introduce a series of think thanks designed to offer deep dives into structural bottlenecks and to foster collaboration and knowledge exchange with key stakeholders.

This is your opportunity to discover our vision, explore actionable solutions, and join us in shaping a more equitable future for European cinema.

Presented by Victoria Thomas (Republic of Story / Course Leader, MA International Film Business, London Film School / Lecturer, Queen Margaret University) and Regina Mosch (Filmmaker / Researcher at Queen Margaret University). Presented by ARTEF.

Entrance with accreditation.

Friday Jan 31 14:00 – 15:00

How Does Virtual Production Shape the Path From Idea to Finished Film?

Venue: Film i Väst Showroom, Kungsgatan 7

Anna Moland, former COO at Rubicon Norway, and Johannes Skoog, VP Supervisor at VP Nordic, discuss how Virtual Production impacts pre-production, decision-making, workflows, and management structures.

Friday Jan 31 15:00 – 17:30

Directors Talk: Dag Johan Haugerud

Venue: Bio Roy, Kungsportsavenyn 45

Dag Johan Haugerud is one of Norway's most influential filmmakers, known for his works that resolve around social and moral dilemmas, blending seriousness with humour through psychological precision. His first short film, 16 Living Clichés, premiered at the 1998 Göteborg Film Festival, marking the beginning of a long-standing relationship with the festival. Haugerud's feature films, including the Amanda Award-winning I Belong and Barn, have earned international acclaim, as has his recent celebrated trilogy, Sex Dreams Love. This year, he returns to compete in the festival's Nordic Competition with his latest film, Love.

The conversation follows the film Love. Moderator: Tobias Åkesson. Entrance with a ticket.

Saturday Feb 1 11:30 – 14:15

Directors Talk: Dea Kulumbegashvili

Venue: Capitol, Skanstorget 1

Dea Kulumbegashvili is Georgia's most acclaimed contemporary filmmaker. She gained international recognition with her feature debut Beginning (GFF 2021), a haunting and stylistically refined drama about faith, identity, and female resistance, which won the Golden Shell for Best Film in San Sebastián. Now, she returns with April, winner of the Special Jury Prize in Venice, a fearless confrontation of patriarchal structures, where a female doctor defends abortion rights and challenges societal norms. Kulumbegashvili also visits Göteborg as the jury chair for the Ingmar Bergman Competition.

The conversation follows the film April. Moderator: Johan Blomqvist. Entrance with a film ticket.

Saturday Feb 1 22:00 – 04:00

Göteborg Film Festival 2025 Finale Party

Venue: Yaki-Da, Storgatan 47

End this year's Göteborg Film Festival at Yaki-Da, featuring four dance floors and a deadly lineup. Experience the haunting beats of death disco from the electrifying The Exorcist GBG and the high-energy rave rock of Göteborg's own Ängel, blending rock and techno in perfect harmony.

Free entrance with accreditation. Ages 23+ only.

Stories travel

Since 2002, we've subtitled millions of minutes and dubbed numerous hours for some of the most exciting studios and filmmakers around the world.

To help share stories-wherever, whenever.

We are Plint. Part of the bigger picture, and proud subtitling partner to Göteborg Film Festival 2025.

Discover the 48th Göteborg Film Festival

Welcome to the 48th Göteborg Film Festival presenting a fantastic programme from January 24 to February 2 with nearly 270 films over ten days. In addition, there will be engaging seminars, talks with filmmakers, parties and DJs. Read more about the annual Focus: Disobedience, the Honorary Dragon Awards and all competitions on the following pages.

Focus:

Disobedience

Examining the Power of Civil Resistance

Disobedience is a force that shapes societies. In a world of rising authoritarianism, political divides, and climate urgency, civil resistance stands at the forefront of the global stage. When does rebellion become a moral obligation? When can it go too far? And is the flouting of laws and regulations a reasonable price to pay for change in a democratic society?

With the Focus: Disobedience, the 48th Göteborg Film Festival explores the concept of disobedience through contemporary cinema examining acts of resistance and their significance in society.

This special programme comprises 14 feature films and 6 short films delving into individuals who dare to defy rules, challenge authorities, and stand up for what they believe in, even when it involves great risks. The programme is accompanied by a Focus Seminar: Disobedience on January 27. Read more about the Focus seminar on page 24.

Mohammad Rasoulof

Focus Key Guest

Award-winning Iranian director Mohammad Rasoulof will present The Seed of the Sacred Fig at the Göteborg Film Festival. Banned in Iran, this bold critique of the regime is hailed as his most daring work yet, earning international acclaim for its poetic and powerful storytelling.

The Seed of the Sacred Fig is the centrepiece of the festival's focus premiering on January 30, 16:00 at Bio Roy. The screening will be followed by a Directors Talk with Rasoulof.

2025 Festival Poster

Art by Britta Marakatt-Labba

This year's Göteborg Film Festival poster is the work of Britta Marakatt-Labba, whose artistry was forged during the demonstrations for Sámi rights in Alta, Norway. Her works embody bravery and the fight against injustice. With a life deeply rooted in resistance and defiance, her perspective brings authenticity and profound civil courage to the festival's focus.

Honorary Dragon Award

Julie Delpy

Göteborg Film Festival is proud to welcome Julie Delpy as the 2025 Honorary Dragon Award recipient. The acclaimed filmmaker and actor will attend to receive the award, join an exclusive on-stage talk, and present her latest film. Meet the Barbarians.

Spanning over four decades, Julie Delpy has established herself as one of the most versatile and groundbreaking voices in international cinema. From her early success as an actor in Three Colours: White and Before Sunrise to her work as a director and writer of films like 2 Days in Paris and Lolo, her cosmopolitan sensibility has become synonymous with intelligent and deeply personal explorations of human relationships.

In celebration of Delpy's remarkable career, the festival will also host a special retrospective featuring some of her most iconic works.

Julie Delpy will receive the Honorary Dragon Award at the Swedish premiere of Meet the Barbarians at Cinema Draken on Thursday, January 29, followed by an on-stage conversation.

Nordic Honorary Dragon Award

Thomas Vinterberg

Thomas Vinterberg is the recipient of the 2025 Göteborg Film Festival's Nordic Honorary Dragon Award.

Thomas Vinterberg, one of the most influential Nordic filmmakers of our time, established himself as a cinematic force with The Celebration, which premiered at Cannes in 1998. Created under the Dogme 95 Manifesto—a movement Vinterberg co-founded with Lars von Trier and other Danish directors—the film set new standards for authenticity and purity in storytelling.

Since then, Vinterberg has directed critically acclaimed works, including The Hunt starring Mads Mikkelsen, the Oscar-winning Another Round, and the drama series Families Like Ours. Currently, he is working on a highly anticipated adaptation of The Brothers Lionheart.

Thomas Vinterberg will attend the festival to receive the Nordic Honorary Dragon Award and participate in a Directors talk following the screening of The Celebration on January 28 at Stora Teatern.

Safe House Før mørket

The civil war rages in the Central African Republic, Linn (35) leads a team of aid workers who are working tirelessly to save lives in a field hospital outside a massive refugee camp. When a Muslim man, persecuted and in mortal danger, seeks refuge, Linn faces a critical decision. A growing mob and Christian militia demand his handover. As the head of security, Linn must act quickly, brutally balancing the safety of her team with the value of a single life. Safe House is based on the true events that unfolded during 15 tense hours at a Doctors Without Borders hospital in Bangui on Christmas Eve, 2013.

Director: Eirik Svensson. Fiction. Norway 2025. Runtime: 80 min. World Premiere.

Live a little Levalite

Best friends Laura and Alex are on a couchsurfing adventure in Europe when Laura wakes up naked having had sex with a stranger. With no memory of the night she doesn't only have to face her boyfriend – but also an increasing fear that the forgotten night wasn't voluntary. Desperately trying to deal with the situation, she begins an equally destructive and liberating exploration of her own boundaries.

Director: Fanny Ovesen. Fiction. Sweden/Norway/Denmark 2025. Runtime: 98 min. World Premiere.

My Eternal Summer Min evige sommer

Fifteen-year-old Fanny and her parents retreat to their summer house, embracing familiar routines: reading, swimming, and walking. Beneath the quiet simplicity, an unspoken grief lingers – they know it will be her mother's last summer. As they try to seize the days they have left together, the family navigates the delicate balance between cherishing the present and facing what's to come.

Director: Sylvia Le Fanu. Fiction. Denmark 2024. Runtime: 105 min. Swedish Premiere.

The Girl With the Needle

Pigen med nålen

Karoline, a young factory worker, struggles to survive in post-WW1 Copenhagen. Unemployed, abandoned, and pregnant, she meets Dagmar, a charismatic woman running an underground adoption agency for unwanted children. With nowhere else to turn, Karoline becomes a wet-nurse. A bond forms between the women, but Karoline's world shatters upon discovering the shocking truth behind her work.

Director: Magnus von Horn. Fiction. Denmark/Poland/Sweden 2024. Runtime: 123 min. Swedish Premiere.

When the Light Breaks Ljósbrot

When the light breaks on a long summer's day in Iceland. From one sunset to another, Una, a young art student encounters love, friendship, sorrow and beauty.

Director: Rúnar Rúnarsson. Fiction. Iceland/Netherlands/Croatia/France 2024. Runtime: 82 min. Swedish Premiere.

Kevlar Soul Kevlarsjäl

When love enters the lives of teenage brothers Alex and Robin, it shatters their protective symbiotic bubble. While marking the start of a healing process for one of them, it sends the other one down a path that will lead to complete catastrophe.

Director: Maria Eriksson-Hecht. Fiction. Sweden/Norway/Finland 2025. Runtime: 101 min. World Premiere.

Love Kjærlighet

Marianne, a pragmatic doctor, and Tor, a compassionate nurse, are both avoiding conventional relationships. One evening, after a blind date, Marianne encounters Tor on the ferry. Tor, who often spends his nights there seeking casual encounters with men, shares his experiences of spontaneous intimacy. Intrigued by his perspective, Marianne begins to explore whether casual intimacy could also be an option for her.

Director: Dag Johan Haugerud. Fiction. Norway 2024. Runtime: 119 min. Swedish Premiere.

Sauna

Sauna follows Johan, a young gay man, through his experiences with love and sex. He has just started working as a receptionist at Adonis, Copenhagen's only gay sauna, where he spends much of his time. For Johan, the city is like a boundless paradise of opportunities, but it is only when he meets transgender William that he experiences love up close. The love between the two is put to a tough test as their relationship develops within a society governed by rigid ideas about gender, love, and identity.

Director: Mathias Broe. Fiction. Denmark 2025. Runtime: 104 min. European Premiere.

Orenda

Orenda means an invisible force, a life spirit that inhabits everything living and life-less: people, wind, birds, rabbits, stone. The one who serves Orenda and sings to it may receive its power. Exploring the themes of guilt and grace, the destinies of two women intertwine into a tense emotional thriller set on a remote island. The new film by highly established director Pirjo Honkasalo stars Golden Globe nominee Alma Pöysti and Pirkko Saisio.

Director: Pirjo Honkasalo. Fiction. Finland/Estonia/Sweden 2025. Runtime: 117 min. Nordic Premiere.

..och sen han franska plåtisen insisterar på att bara använda 35mm...

PRODUCENTEN

Ah, snyggt!

ASSISTENTEN

Ja, jo men.. dyrt? Jo, sista grejen som kanske är lite jobbigt är att kunden vill skicka en second unit till Kapstaden för att ta bilder på pingviner..

PRODUCENTEN

Jo men det löser vi nog inom budget.

Film Production in West Sweden and Göteborg

Throughout the year, Göteborg and West Sweden provide a lively environment for film and audiovisual production.

Region Västra Götaland

Region Västra Götaland has established a strong position in Scandinavia and internationally due to a vibrant film industry, well-developed infrastructure, and highly acclaimed production and post-production companies. Directors like Ruben Östlund, Tarik Saleh, Sanna Lenken, Lars von Trier, Ella Lemhagen, Thomas Vinterberg, Lisa James Larsson and Erik Poppe have filmed Oscar and Palme d'Or winners, as well as other films and drama series selected for the most prestigious international festivals. This includes, of course, major audience successes in cinemas and on streaming platforms.

Film i Väst

Film i Väst is Scandinavia's leading regional film fund and has co-produced more than 1,500 films and drama series since 1992. Thanks to great co-operation with Swedish and international producers over 100 films have been screened in Cannes, Berlin, Venice and Toronto. The co-productions have received 12 Oscar nominations since 2011 and 13 Palme d'Or nominations, including Ruben Östlund's winners The Square and Triangle of Sadness. Thomas Vinterberg won an Oscar in 2021 for Another Round, and Joachim Trier's

The Worst Person in the World was double nominated for Oscars in 2022. In 2023, Ruben Östlund was triple Oscar nominated for his Triangle of Sadness and Oliver Hermanus double-nominated for his Living. Film i Väst is a part of Region Västra Götaland. filmivast.se

Filmservice

Filmservice.se is Film i Väst's online service for the film and TV industry, primarly aimed at Film i Väst's co-productions in Scandinavia. This unique database is a useful tool for producers, line producers and other professionals to access the film industry and its suppliers in Region Västra Götaland, including production and post-production companies, film workers, actors, extras, and suppliers of goods and services. It is a regional location register for all 49 municipalities and the "Green Register" for young people who want to enter the film industry.
